The Intelligencer:

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 20. A LL THAT IS DESIRABLE AND NEW

the new M. E. Church, in process of orection. No serious damage was done, though some narrow escapes were useful but disagreeable, at this end of the creek bridge, Main street. These stores will be 18½ feet front and 72 feet deep-two stories in height. Mr. Mc-Nell expects to have them completed during the coming fall.

OMISSION.—In our report of the pro-edings of the Board of Education, Chursday evening, we omitted to menion that a report from the Committee on Salaries was received, recommending that the salaries for the current year be as, follows: Superintendent of Public Schools, $1356; Principals, $1106; Assis-tant Teachers, $440; Teachers in Divi-sions A and B, $385; Teachers in Divi-sions C and D, $300. The report was selected.

POLICE COURT.-There was but little orning, and that little of the most rifling character. It seems to us that must be extremely hard up vs. John Gallagher and William boys, John Cainguer and William Wilson, for engaging in a boy's equibble in the streets. These children appeared to be about ten or twelvey cars old. The onese against them were dismissed, their parents paying costs.

The remaining case, that of Joseph Baker, for assaulting a boy 11 years old, son of Mayer Karka, was only a little.

Baker for assaulting a boy it years out, son of Mary Facka, was only a little less tritting than the others. Mrs. Facka's children and Baker's children were playing about a hydrant used in common by both parties. One of Mrs. F.'s children threw a pebble with feeble and uncertain aim at those of Raker. Baker ran out and pulled the ear of the boy who threw the stone. Mrs. F. comboy who threw the stone. Mrs. F. com-plained, and Baker was fined $5 and costs.

Baker ran out sind pulmed the ear of the boy who threw the stone. Mrs. F. complained, and Baker was fined $5 and costs.

Church Sociable or Re-union.—

A somewhat original and certainly very pleasant affair in the way of a social entertrainment came off at the English Lutheran Church, last night. The object of the meeting, as stated, was "to have the members of the church become better acquainted with each other, that better acquainted with each other, that they might talk more familiarly of the 'things of God' and the interests of the joys." Without any desire to question

To this end the pastor and church council sent a beautiful sent a beautiful card of juvitation to each and every member of the congregation.

The exercises were opened by singing

The exercises were opened by singing

"Blest be the that binds,"

"Blest betthe tie that binds."

After which prayer was offered, a few selections of scripture read, and a short address delivered by the pastor. The address briefly reviewed the mission work of the past five years, and congratulated the officers and members of the church upon what God had done for them.

done for them.

One hundred and twenty persons have been added to the church and of this number the great majority had never been in the habit of attending any place of worship.

Four thousand six hundred dollars and fifty cents have been contributed towards various objects of benevolence. Three young men are in preparation for the ministry, and 9 orphan children are being edocated in English, German and music.

The pastor also stated that it is the intention to go forward with the new church building immediately.

After the address came a general hand shaking with congratulations and questions concerning eachother's health and happiness. Ice cream and cake were then served to all present, and ster singing several bymas, and listening to short and sploy tousts and speeches, the congregation, separated, knowing each other better and realizing that "it is good and pleasant for breilly ren to dwell together in unity."
